REPORT NO.

Colonel Francisco Arana, Chief of the Armed Forces of Guatemala, was assassinated in Amatitlan, Guatemala, at 1 P.M., 18 July by Enrique Blanco, Sub-director of the Guardia Civil, who was also killed. The Governor was sending the bodies of both to Guatemala City the afternoon of 18 July.

2. Although implications of Arana's assassination are not yet clear, it is reported that tension had been growing during the previous week between Arana factions and those of Lt. Col. Jacobo Arbenz, Minister of National Defense. By mid-afternoon of 18 July the National Palace, the Guardia Civil, and the Ministry of Communications were closed.
